President's notes

JANUARY 2013, VOLUME 7, ISSUE 1

Happy New Year! I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and New Year celebration. Thank you so much for this opportunity to serve as your president. I am very excited about the new year. We have a lot of work ahead of us. This year will be very challenging. First off the bat, we are hit with a double whammie! The looming fiscal cliff and Obamacare. No matter what tax bracket you are in, you will be effected. Secondly, we need to start cleaning up the GOP image. We have been getting a bad rap from the Left and from the media. We need to send a message that we are stronger than ever and we will work hard to elect good Republican candidates. The municipal elections will be held this year. We need to lend a helping hand to our Republicans in office and those who will be running for office. We are the life of the party and we will accept any challenges head on! Now that we have a red state, we need to concentrate on local and state elections. I hope to see you at our next meeting on 10 January!

A Salute to all our Fallen

This painting is done from a picture from my husband's ramp ceremony in Afghanistan...this picture has been of my favorite patriot themed pictures because the soldier's face was shadowed and it made the soldier anonymous—it could be or represent anyone. I mentioned on FB that someday I would love to have someone paint this picture for me and Steve Parker contacted me about Virginia's talent and enthusiasm to do this for me.

EDITORS NOTE:

I find it fascinating that Mr Gore or his representatives refused a purchase offer to buy Current TV from an American, Glen Beck because his views "didn't reflect" their views. Yet they find selling to a Muslim company to purchase this television network. Does that mean Al Jazeera reflects Mr Gore's views???
