A note from our president:

Many, many thanks to all of you who attended our 5th Anniversary celebration in May! It was wonderful to see so many people attend, especially our special guests NFRW President Rae Lynne Chornenky and Martha Jenkins, NFRW Member-At-Large (NCGOP Secretary and the NCFRW president when we were chartered in 2007). We had fun looking back at some of the highlights and achievements and looking forward to doing what we do best – electing Republicans!

Marla Finn produced a truly beautiful video photo collage for us that brought tears flowing in buckets from my eyes while I watched it for the first time and remembered the Nunnery twins registering Republican on their 18th birthday at Pasta & Politics, seeing our dear friend Jerry Dennis doing so many things, and realizing the efforts we've made to elect Republicans and also support our community through involvement in the USO, the Fisher House and Fayetteville Beautiful. Yes, I'm a tad bit sentimental and definitely biased, but the thing that impresses me most about the video is the smiling faces of our members. We are a team, friends, and a family of sorts – each respecting our differences while celebrating our common interests.

Summer will fast forward and, before we know it, it'll be time for our yard sale and the general election. Please save items for the yard sale (no clothing) as candidates will need $$$ at every step along the journey to victory. And, please volunteer now to help the campaigns of our associate members John Szoka, Richard Button and NC Senator Wesley Meredith.

Thank you all for being part of this incredible, caring, loving group of women and men! I hope to see many of you June 12 for our meeting!

CCRWC Video Thank You Marla Finn!

The fabulous photo history collage produced by Marla Finn for our 5th Anniversary celebration last month will be played in color with audio at our June meeting. Thank you Marla for a fabulous job! (And, copies will soon be available for members.)

Republican Women are the Life of the Party aprons

We have two versions of the apron – one with CCRWC and one without CCRWC on it. Both are $20 and may be purchased at our meeting in June.

Event submissions

If you have an event you'd like us to add to our calendar, please let us know about it!

John Szoka & Richard Button need our help!

Many of you have been very generous in contributing to these campaigns. Please consider an additional contribution at this time. Our two CCRWC associate members need financial help now because their primaries totally depleted their treasuries. The next reporting date is late June. Demonstrating that they can raise money before that deadline will encourage other groups, PACS and the state legislative caucuses to also contribute to their campaigns. Thank you for your generosity!

Cumberland County GOP Men's Club

The CCRMC is raffling a Holland BBQ grill as a fundraiser for candidates. The men have been terrific supporters for our club. Let's support their efforts by purchasing tickets at our June 12 meeting! All proceeds go to support GOP candidates.

Obama came to Colorado to sign the stimulus into law, kicking off more than three years of broken promises and disappointments

“As President, I expect to be judged – and should be judged – by the results of this program.” (President Barack Obama, Remarks At Stimulus Event, Springfield, VA, 2/11/09)

Obama came to Colorado with the bill he wanted, the results he expected, and a demand to be held accountable

The Stimulus Gave Obama More Money Than He Originally Envisioned

When asked about the size of the stimulus, then-press secretary Robert Gibbs said the stimulus was more money than the president originally envisioned.

“Q: “Robert, though, is it a fair read to say that if your economics team has any concern about this bill at all, it is that it is, in fact, too small, not a big enough pot to really stimulate the economy the way the President originally envisioned?” GIBBS: “Well, the President originally envisioned a $675 billion to $775 billion plan, in meeting with his economic team in December, and I think today we're signing a $787.2-billion plan.” (Press Secretary Robert Gibbs, Press Gaggle, 2/17/09)

Gibbs followed up by affirming that they “landed on a size that will create jobs and get people back to work.”

“I think the President believes that the framework of this bill is -- was done in a way that will stimulate economic growth, and that we've landed on a size that will create jobs and get people back to work.” (Press Secretary Robert Gibbs, Press Gaggle, 2/17/09)

Obama promised it would help the middle class “in a way we haven't seen in nearly 50 years”

At the stimulus signing, Obama promised that it would “help poor and working Americans pull themselves into the middle class in a way we haven't seen in nearly 50 years.”

“And it's a plan that rewards responsibility, lifting two million Americans from poverty by ensuring that anyone who works hard does not have to raise a child below the poverty line. So as a whole, this plan will help poor and working Americans pull themselves into the middle class in a way we haven't seen in nearly 50 years.”(President Barack Obama, Remarks By The President At The Signing Of The American Recovery And Reinvestment Act, Denver, CO, 2/17/09)

“So as we go through this process, we're also going to make sure that America is – as we recover, that American middle class is not left behind.” (Vice President Joe Biden, Remarks By The Vice President At The Signing Of The American Recovery And Reinvestment Act, Denver, CO, 2/17/09)

Obama Expected To “Be Judged By The Results” Of The Stimulus

At The Stimulus Signing, Obama Said “We Expect You, The American People, To Hold Us Accountable For The Results.”

“With a recovery package of this size comes a responsibility to assure every taxpayer that we are being careful with the money they work so hard to earn. ... And we expect you, the American people, to hold us accountable for the results.” (President Barack Obama, Remarks By The President At The Signing Of The American Recovery And Reinvestment Act, Denver, CO, 2/17/09)

President Obama:“As President, I Expect To Be Judged – And Should Be Judged – By The Results Of This Program.” (President Barack Obama, Remarks At Stimulus Event, Springfield, VA, 2/11/09)

Cumberland County Republican Women's Club

Every two years, the federation honors a woman from each club for her contributions to the club. Our honoree this year is a dear friend Sue Dennis. Sue is the living definition of energy in motion - always giving and caring for others, do whatever asked, and, more often, simply pitching in wherever there is a need. Sue has served as treasurer of our club and is the cheerful voice many of us hear once a month at reservation time. We are proud to have her as a member and blessed to have her as our friend.
Congratulations, Sue!
