President's notes ...

The primary campaigns are over and it's time to come together to work for our candidates.

We've already donated $100 to each of our member and associate member candidates. Thank you all for making that possible.

Now, for the more challenging part: donating time to do the many things involved in get-out-the-vote efforts. The CCRWC has signed up for Wednesdays at the CCGOP Victory 2010 campaign office between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Please come join us to make calls and do other things for Senator Burr, our congressional candidates as well as state and local candidates — all need our help. If you cannot come during those hours, please volunteer when you can.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Fisher House at last month's meeting. The CCRWC presented a $300 donation this year to Paula Gallero, the Fisher House manager. Additionally, we collected another $245 from individuals in attendance. You're an awesome group!

Our guest speaker July 13th is Illario Pantano, our 7th congressional district candidate. Illario's operations director, Diane Ellis, has been a frequent visitor to CCRWC meetings. I hope many of you will come to meet and talk with him. He is in an excellent position to win his race.

Thank you for all you do.

Suzanne

November 2, 2010

Have you signed up to help with a candidate's campaign yet? As Republicans we cannot assume that we will win our races in November — we are outnumbered in Cumberland County by a 2-1 margin and must work extra hard to elect our Republicans. The Democrats have shown they can manipulate an election, so it's vitally important that we all work hard in our neighborhood precincts to get the vote out. Do your part! Work with a candidate or volunteer to work at the County GOP Victory 2010 campaign office located at 894-Elm Street, Fayetteville. Call 425-4353 or 728-2601 for more information.

We are growing strong!

The Cumberland County Republican Women's Club is just over 3 years old. We are proud to announce that our membership now stands at 61 regular members and 34 associate members. As we continue to grow, our club becomes more and more vital to the conservative Republican cause. Our members are not only active in our club but they contribute to the county GOP and they work for our local, state and national Republican candidates. If you know a concerned conservative, invite them to join us.

July 13 guest speaker is Illario Pantano

Illario Pantano is a combat veteran, businessman, author, documentary author, law enforcement officer, veterans advocate who has served his country as a Marine Corps veteran of two wars, and, in civilian life, as a special Deputy Sheriff. He experienced the high corporate culture at Goldman Sachs, but was deeply dissatisfied and chose instead to become an entrepreneur. He authored a best selling book about his experiences in Iraq and has remained involved in advocating national security issues. He also produced a documentary film about modern-day warriors to raise money for wounded veterans. Pantano is currently running for Congress in North Carolina's 7th congressional district.

The Fisher House

We had a very informative meeting last month with Paula Gallero, manager of the Fisher

House. The DVD she shared with us explained so much more about the Fisher House's mission than we can in words. Here is the note we received from her:

"Dear CCRWC,

Thank you so much for your generous donation to our Fisher House. We cannot tell you how much your continued support means, both to us and the soldiers and their families in their time of need."

Supporting America's military in their time of need, we provide "a home away from home" that enables family members to be close to a loved one at the most stressful time -- during hospitalization for an illness, disease or injury.

If you missed the meeting and want to donate to The Fisher House Plan to bring paper goods, such as paper towels, bathroom tissue, or cleansing wipes to the July meeting to support our Fisher House

Legislative News

Watch for updates from Lin Laub in your email for Legislative issues that concern all of us, locally and nationally.

A thank you note to share ...

CCRWC associate member Wesley Meredith shares his appreciation for our $100 contribution to his campaign:

"Thank you for your contribution to my campaign. Your support means a lot to me personally.

Please feel free to call if I can ever be of service to you."
