- 4. There must be a second for the motion.
- 5. The President will restate your motion so everyone can hear.
- 6. If necessary, discussion will follow.
- 7. If someone wishes to end the discussion and take a vote, they may call out, "Call the question."
- 8. The President may or may not call for the vote.
- 9. The Secretary will count the votes.
- 10. The President announces the result of the vote.

The Trumpet Award

The Board has decided that it would like to give an award, The Trumpet Award, on a quarterly basis, for outstanding and meritorious efforts on the part of one of our members. Also, the CCRWC needs to establish an Awards Committee. More later.

DEADLINE FOR SEPTEMBER
NEWSLETTER IS AUGUST 23, 2007

From Your President: Barbara Olcott

Welcome to our newly designed newsletter. Paulette and I have been working to make this document as interesting and informative as possible. The Board approved the current format, and you should be seeing small articles and pieces on those items most pertinent to Republican Women.

On the first page, the top left section will hold a permanent list of Officers and Committee Chairs. The section below holds the calendar with Club meetings in blue and other important dates in red. The upper right section will hold the Presidents message, and below that will be our monthly tally of donations for the Fisher House.

On the second page, the top left section will provide meeting and luncheon information. Below that, will be the permanent location for the State and National Federation websites

A section on Parliamentary procedure will be in each month's newsletter, so that those who are not well versed in Roberts' Rules of Order will have an opportunity to learn the correct procedures for participating in our business meetings. It will be important for you to check the roster update box in each issue as our membership grows.

As we have elections coming swiftly on, there will be items pertaining to blogs, candidates, and issues. As long as there is room, photos of previous meetings will be inserted.

At this time, we will try to limit the letter to three pages, but as more information becomes available, we may have to expand.

Be sure to wear your pins and name tags to each meeting. Jerry Dennis has designed a great name tag, and we thank him for his efforts in that endeavor as well as in helping Sue with her Treasurer's duties.

I'm sure you now realize how important it is to arrive in time to pay for your lunch and be seated when the gavel comes down promptly at 11:30 A.M.

See you August 1!!

THE FISHER HOUSE

UUUUU

The needs of the Fisher House are significant. Let's keep these precious folks in our hearts by designating each month as a donation period of specific items.

August: Laundry, Kitchen, Bath Cleaning Supplies

September: Paper Goods

October: Coffee, Coffee supplies, Water, Soft Drinks

November: Canned Meats, Soups

December: Linens, (towels, sheets, pillow cases)

Suzanne Rucker has graciously offered to deliver the goods to the Fisher House.

FISHER HOUSE: Itemized donations by category. You may make cash donations as well. All donations are fully tax deductible, so keep a log of your donated goods and cash and a record of your checks. The Fisher House is part of Caring for America, a state project of the NCFRW.
