President, Staci Chiomento:

Dobry dzień! Or in English, good day! I am so happy to be back on U.S. soil! We truly are a blessed nation and we are also very generous and loving. I was reminded how easy it is to focus on the negative opinions of the U.S. from foreign countries and we forget that there are countries out there who do care about us and look up to us for the things we have done as a nation and as individuals. The Polish people we were with commended our love and our strength and even prayed for our country to get our finances straight in order to thrive and lead once again. I was touched and inspired by the prayers and by the verbal support they expressed to us. Let us take the support and prayers from them to hold with our own prayers to inspire, drive, and lift up our members, neighbors, and leaders to remain involved in the efforts to return our nation to the status it deserves. Blessings and prayers.

Staci Chiomento

Perdue veto override victories

They said it couldn't be done!

Well, overriding can and has been accomplished on several key bills to include medical tort reform and abortion.

Why?

This year men and women with fierce determination cared enough to raise their voices loudly in support of the bills and because Republicans control the North Carolina General Assembly.

Voter ID will need to wait until the fall General Assembly session. Meanwhile, everyone, please continue to contact our legislative delegation (see our website for contact info) to urge passage for it and other bills.

And, please continue working to help raise the funds needed to elect more Republicans to public office. Last year's victories made it possible to achieve this year's gains. It's essential that we continue doing what we do:

Elect Republicans!
