President's notes from Suzanne ...

Let me start by saying how exciting it is to welcome so many new members and associates to the CCRWC! We look forward to seeing you at meetings and working with all of you.

A HUGE thank you to Sue Dennis and Debbie Workman for the job they're doing recruiting CCRWC volunteers to make phone calls and do door-to-door canvassing at the Victory Office for our candidates, most especially our CCRWC members John Szoka, Richard Button, Diana Carroll and Wesley Meredith. Believe me, this is the type of early groundwork that pays big dividends in November. And, I want to thank all of you who worked August 4 for Super Saturday. Great job team! (See below for other ways you can help.)

Our August 14 guest speaker is Kristoff Bauer, Interim Fayetteville City Manager. He will be discussing the upcoming February 2013 Parks and Recreation Bond Referendum. I've heard a lot of talk and many questions about this issue to include property and sales tax increases to cover the cost. Take this opportunity to ask questions and get the facts.

I'm happy to announce that we're offering another option for diners at our monthly membership meetings – the salad bar for $13 per person – all you can eat. Please call Sue Dennis or e-mail her today with your reservation! (425-4353 or sue3315@aol.com)

It's time for our annual trash to treasure yard sale at Sara Harner's house on September 15. Please start sorting through things now and set them aside someplace. We will set up a time and date to deliver items to Sara's. No clothing please! Purses are the exception!

It's hot out there whether we're talking about the temperature or the political climate. You'll be hearing a lot about this-that-and-what-not. Stay cool, ask questions and get the facts.

 Please remember we accept at all meetings donations of used books and magazines and of new stuffed animals – all are part of our Caring for America project and are delivered to the Fisher House, the Pediatric Ward at Womack Army Hospital or the Ft. Bragg USO. Fresh baked items are always enjoyed at the USO – you bake them, bring them to our meetings and we deliver them!

Where else, but in this great country could a politician like Senator Harry Reid get away with passing on purely fabricated rumors as facts!

Remember, on the issues the Democrats loose! Help get the facts out!

Welcome to our new members and associates

Members: Diana Carroll, Mary Daugherty, Betty Dennis, Linda Hoggard, Jamie Ivey, Luana Maravi, and Mary Webb

Associate: Erik Herr

Needed: People to make calls, knock on doors and elect Republicans!

We had a terrific CCRWC volunteer turnout for August 4th at Super Saturday. If you'd prefer doing something other than making phone calls, walk door-to-door, offer to put signs together and distribute them, or go on a will-call list if something needs to be done for a candidate. We've been asked to hold back on contribution snacks and beverages – the cupboards are overflowing with your generous donations!

Government goes to those who show up. Now is the time to make a difference by showing up. Everything each of us does now contributes to winning in November. We have a proud tradition in the CCRWC of doing this because electing Republicans is what we do!

When you work, be sure to sign in as a CCRWC member to get credit for your hours AND you can also ask to volunteer specifically for a candidate. Remember, we have four CCRWC candidates on the ballot: Dick Button, Diana Carroll, John Szoka, and Senator Wesley Meredith.

On August 16, from 6:30 to 7 p.m. there will be a Victory training session to learn how to use the special phones and do door-to-door canvassing. Call or e-mail Robert Andrews today for more information.

Thank You note from Richard Button

“Suzanne,

Please convey my “Thank You” to the members of the Cumberland county Republican Women’s club. I would like to express my deep appreciation for the $1,000 donation to the campaign.

After moving to Fayetteville, it wasn’t until we made the decision to become personally involved in NC politics that met you fine people who are actively involved in sending conservative representatives to Raleigh and Washington, D.C.

Both Kathy and I are moved by the support we have received for my campaign and the message you are charging me to deliver to the General Assembly in 2013. I will do my best to honor your trust.

Sincerely,

Richard Button”

Trash to treasures yard sale September 15

We are fortunate that Sara and Mike Harner have once again offered their home for this sale. They are located at 5511 Tarheel Dr., which is in the Cross Creek Mall area. What a great location for our sale!

It’s time to clean out the closets, cabinets and garage. All items are welcome except no clothing with the exception of purses. Please take the time to price the item with a label, masking tape or Avery dots. This will save us some time when we are setting up. Remember, our goal is to sell everything! We have some storage space, so call Suzanne at 484-7957 or Sara Harner at 864-9818 to drop off your items.

Salad anyone?

We now have another option for members, associates and guests at our monthly Highland Country Club meetings: all-you-can-eat salad for $13 from the salad bar. The full buffet is still $22, dessert $5.25 and seating only is $3 per person. Please remember to leave a tip in the tip bowl on the registration table for our servers. Meals include a room fee, setup and take down, the meal and our program. We make very few pennies rounding up the costs of our meals.

Mitt Romney visits NC

Will we see Mitt Romney in Cumberland County? We don't know, but we hope so! Until then, here's a great opportunity to see him!
