Cumberland County Republican Women's Club

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Staci Chiomento, President

Two months left until election and less than that until our early voting begins. It is CRUNCH-TIME, ladies!! We have so much going on and so many ways that you are needed. We need your baking skills, your lovely voices, your friendly faces, and most of all your dedication to electing republicans!

Can you give 2 hours at the Victory office? How about drop off some goodies for the other volunteers? Can you bring a friend to go walking with you for candidates? Can you pass the word about the upcoming Tillis and Ellmers at the International Folk Festival events? These are all the things we do for every election, but this one has specific goals—to gain control of the U.S. Senate and maintain control of the U.S. House, NC House, and the NC Senate!

Electing Republicans, it's what we do!

TIPS FOR OUR SERVERS

Each month as you sign in to attend our meetings, we have a tip jar on the table. Please remember to include a tip for the servers when you pay for your dinner or seat.

SEPTEMBER SPEAKER

NC GOP Vice Chair Carolyn Justice

Carolyn Hewitt Justice is a former Republican member of the North Carolina General Assembly representing the state's sixteenth House district, including constituents in New Hanover and Pender counties. A property manager from Hampstead, North Carolina, Justice was first elected in 2002, and served five terms in the State House of Representatives, from 2003 to 2012. She did not run for reelection in 2012.

In her final term Justice was chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Natural and Economic Resources, and the Environment and Natural Resources Committee. She was also a member of the following committees: Appropriations; Election Law and Campaign Finance Reform; Ethics; and Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House.

In January, 2014, she announced her intention to run for the vice-chairmanship of the North Carolina Republican Party.

"For decades, Carolyn Justice has been a committed and principled conservative leader in our party, and it's a privilege to have her as the new vice chairwoman of the NCGOP," North Carolina Republican Party Chairman Claude Pope said in an email news release.

"Carolyn's proven leadership and wealth of public service experience will be enormously beneficial in our efforts to take back Kay Hagan's Senate seat and keep our majorities in the General Assembly." (last 2 paragraphs from WECT)

BOOTS ON THE GROUND

The Victory Office is very excited to welcome Holley Talley back to Fayetteville as our Field Coordinator! Holly worked in the 2012 office and we are happy to have her back on board. Stop by to say hello, and stay tuned for our next Super Saturday - tentatively scheduled for August 23rd. Read on to the next page to read an email from Holly.

The 2014 Victory office is located at 3035 Boone Trail Ext, next to the Village Coffee House and Fayetteville Hyperbarics. Always be sure to call before stopping by because pre-season election activities can vary drastically. The CCGOP is currently soliciting for volunteers to help have someone at the front desk on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12-6 and Saturdays, 10-2. If you are able to work some of these hours or want to work out another time to volunteer, please contact Bill Bode at 301-651-0063.

Victory is won not in miles but in inches. Win a little now, hold your ground, and later, win a little more. — Louis L'Amour

CHARTERS OF FREEDOM

Courage of the Founders ~ The Perilous Road to Independence

Perhaps our Congress will be Exalted on a high Gallows.

Abraham Clark, signer of the Declaration of Independence, August 6, 1776

The sole governing authority presiding over the tumultuous events of the American Revolution between 1774 and 1789 was a body known as Congress. With no power to regulate commerce or lay taxes, and with little ability to enforce any of its decisions, this group, representing the thirteen colonies, declared independence, conducted a war that defeated one of the greatest military powers of its day, and invented a new political entity that became a sovereign independent nation. Its members pondered everything from the rightness of independence to the number of flints needed by the armies—sometimes with the enemy not far from their doorstep. Asserting their rights, they found themselves labeled as traitors. The fifty-four men who composed the First Continental Congress represented different interests, religions, and regions; they held conflicting opinions as to how best to restore their rights. Most did not know each other; some did not like each other. With no history of successful cooperation, they struggled to overcome their differences and, without any way of knowing if the future held success or nooses for them all, they started down a long and perilous road toward independence.

HISTORY TRIVIA

Which state sent no delegates to the Constitutional Convention?

Rhode Island was the only state that sent no delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

Quotes

“In all our associations; in all our agreements let us never lose sight of this fundamental maxim - that all power was originally lodged in, and consequently is derived from, the people.”~~George Mason

“One of the penalties for refusing to participate in politics is that you end up being governed by your inferiors.”~~Plato

“Freedom isn't free. It shouldn't be a bragging point that 'Oh, I don't get involved in politics,' as if that makes someone cleaner. No, that makes you derelict of duty in a republic. Liars and panderers in government would have a much harder time of it if so many people didn't insist on their right to remain ignorant and blindly agreeable.”~~Bill Maher

Our club was formed in May 2007, recognizing the need for expanding choices for Republican women who need to meet during the evening. Business meeting time is kept to an hour. Our programs include persons of local and state political interest, state officers of the NCFRW and regular updates from our members who are elected Republicans in the county and state.

We meet on the second Tuesday evening monthly for a buffet dinner. Spouses are encouraged to attend and become associate members. Guests are always welcomed as well.

Our Club raises money for candidates and club activities in a variety of ways, including our annual Pizza & Politics event which attracts candidates and other Republican officials from throughout the state.

OBJECTIVES OF OUR ORGANIZATION

- To increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government.
- To promote an informed public through political education and activity.
- To foster and encourage loyalty to the Republican Party and to promote its principles and ideals.
- To work for Republican candidates in all elections including non-partisan elections.
- To support the objectives of the Republican National, State, and Central District Executive Committees, and to work for the election of Republican Party candidates.
- To promote cooperation among the National and North Carolina Federation of Republican Women and CCRWC.
