From our President, Suzanne Rucker:

Well, I've stared at this page for about 15 minutes trying to think of something witty and funny to say instead being my usual overly nostalgic and sentimental self at moments like this one. I'm not succeeding well.

We've had a wonderful few years growing to 99 members (full and associates) in that time. The credit goes to a wonderful group of men and women who've worked well together, grown to respect one another and formed lifelong friendships. I'd like to hug all of you and tell each of you that I love you for being you, being there to help and being there to, occasionally, give me a reality check.

I am tremendously proud of what we've accomplished and look forward to many more years of involvement with the CCRWC. It's time now, though, to pass the gavel on (if I can find it) to new leadership. I wish the new Board well and know we'll all be supporting them 100 percent.

My husband and I will be hosting a Christmas Open House to say "Thank you" to everyone, please plan to join us at our home on December 19th from 1-4 p.m.

Merry Christmas and God bless you all.

Suzanne

Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same.

A very fond farewell to our President,
Suzanne Rucker

It has been such an honor and learning experience to have worked with Suzanne over these last 3 years.

Suzanne is always ready to answer any questions we may have, give her advice, and encourage us to be the very best that we can be. She opened her home and heart to all, as we prepared for our elections, special events and meetings.

We will miss your style of leadership, Suzanne, and we look forward to your continued support as our Immediate Past President on the Executive Board.

President elect Staci Chiomento with her daughter.
